This case will be tried to a jury.

Counsel may not modify these dates without leave of court. The parties shall comply with the Court's standing orders, which are available at cand.uscourts.gov/jstorders.

Pursuant to their request, ECF No. 22 at 5, the parties will participate in court-sponsored mediation through the court's ADR Program.

The parties must take all necessary steps to conduct discovery, compel discovery, hire counsel, retain experts, and manage their calendars so that they can complete discovery in a timely manner and appear at trial on the noticed and scheduled dates. All counsel must arrange their calendars to accommodate these dates, or arrange to substitute or associate in counsel who can.

Trial dates set by this Court should be regarded as firm. Requests for continuance are disfavored. The Court will not consider any event subsequently scheduled by a party, party-controlled witness, expert or attorney that conflicts with the above trial date as good cause to grant a continuance. The Court will not consider the pendency of settlement discussions, or the reaching of a settlement "in principle," as good cause to grant a continuance.

The case management conference currently scheduled for February 11, 2015 is vacated.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
